And that is a wrap on 2019! Thank you to all of our wonderful supporters who become friends, volunteers who become family, and everyone near and far who make this humanitarian work possible. We couldn't do any of it without you. 2020: yalla!

When volunteers sign up for our VP1 package, it includes rides to and from the airport (among other perks as well!) Yesterday morning, our dentist and driver caught this incredible winter sunrise on the way to the airport. Join us?

FAMILY -
Some of us have lost ours, some of us are far from ours, and some of us have a different type of family than you might imagine. But @healthpointfoundation lives and breathes what it means to be family. Every member of HPF: board members, field workers, volunteers, managers, translators — they all come together in sorrow and in happiness and the feeling of love and connection is strong. Thank you to our extended HPFAMILY abroad for doing what you do so our family on the ground can keep doing what they do. Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays. We hope you have your family, too ❤️

Our last patient of the week knew what was up! 🤩 Tomorrow we begin a new week, with two dentists from #UK and #Germany. Our team is anticipating one of our busiest weeks yet and we are so happy to welcome back @dr.ansar.mahmood, to welcome Dr. Wolfgang, and to have @zahick92 with us too! Yalla!

who remembers their first visit to the dentist? Yesterday we had a patient who had never seen a dentist in her thirty years of living! Although she was initially terrified, we were able to use some of our compassionate care skills, some funny stories, and of course, our dentist was able to do her work efficiently and beautifully. The patient left laughing, giving us a thumbs up. 🙌 Happy Thursday everyone!

OUTREACH
On Friday, our team braved torrential rains to provide on-site oral examinations at @mvi_greece clinic! Over a busy hour, our dentists triaged over forty patients, providing appointments to those who needed urgent dental care. By going to people who usually work during our operating hours, we are able to expand our reach and, of course, provide better healthcare to a larger population. Thanks for having us!

EMERGENCY DENTISTRY!
Sometimes you catch a case you're really proud to be a part of. This past week, our team saw a child whose presenting problem was a broken tooth after falling down. @alexanderschafigh quickly recognized it was a much more serious matter, with the twelve year old's jaw likely broken and requiring maxillo-facial surgery! The child and his father went to the hospital, and were put under the care of @msfgreece who handle paediatric cases in Moria. An excellent learning opportunity medically, but also a reminder to always be thorough with our exams and to see more than just a broken tooth! Grateful for these opportunities and for having dentists who are so talented, we know our patients are receiving the best possible care.

-REAL TALK -
We love what we do at @healthpointfoundation Each member of our team has chosen to be here because they believe in healthcare for refugees. And they live this passion for others every moment of every day. And guess what. It can be exhausting - navigating needs of patients who have many demands, or who are in life-altering amounts of pain; translating for patients who are scared, trying to calm young patients who are confused. It is exhausting. And that's okay! No one on our team is ever immune to the emotion behind each patient's story and some days are way tougher than others. This post is just to remind all those working in the field that it's okay to feel tired and overwhelmed: a good team will always have your back, and that's what we aim to do. Provide high quality dental care, and support each other to the best of our ability. Thank you to our whole team who make this all possible

-NEW WEEK-

Returning dentist @alexanderschafigh from #Germany arrived to help us this week! Last here in August, he spent two weeks with us then and came back fully prepared to help out at @healthpointfoundation this week. After a fast and efficient triage this morning, the team jumped right into helping some of the 40+ patients who queued this morning.

VOLUNTEER TESTIMONY:

From @dr.brookshaw_rbimplants

I recently had the absolute honour and privilege to be able to serve the wonderful refugee community of #Morla camp.

Humanitarian endeavours are carried out for many different reasons for different people

my driving force is to serve humanity with a skill that is so desperately needed and that I can easily provide

There is a real elevation of my own personal well being by being able to bring solace to these people as well as a positive benefit and improvement in their own quality of life

So often we see these terrible situations in the media at home and most of us sigh and do nothing not because we don't feel any empathy but because life is so busy and we all have our own worries and life issues which overtake us.

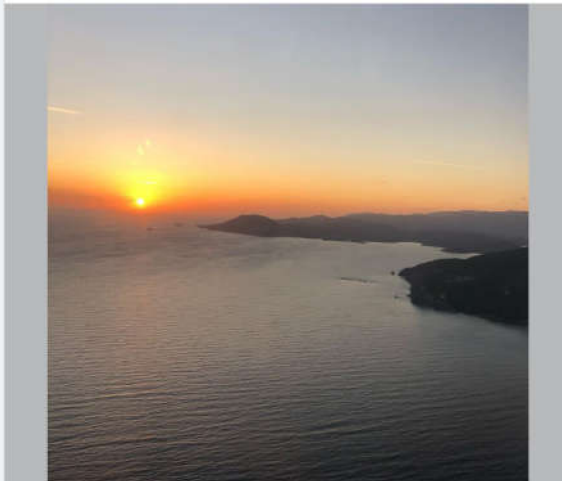

Taking time out to do good allows us the opportunity to recharge in a way we are seldom offered

From a personal point of view, my mother's family all escaped religious persecution overnight as refugees from Iran in the late 70s and therefore this project definitely has a profound effect on me

To see people as people and not news items is very healthy and would break down the barriers of ignorance and prejudice that often prevail

The overarching sentiment you are left with after an experience like this is that the Earth is but one country and humankind it's citizens

Sometimes we receive donations we can not use for our projects, but we always find the best place to send them.

Recently we gave lots of toothbrushes and toothpaste to the Health-Point Foundation Dental/Medical Relief who are giving them to the students at Stichting Bootvluchteling's school to provide them with some much needed dental care and routine.

Thank you for doing such a great job!

~MONDAY~

Winter may have started outside but in our container, we're still sporting sunglasses. This young patient absolutely loved having some dental goggles - which is good because her procedure was a bit complicated. Our staff are pros at handling care though, and Dr. Tiffany has such a warm approach. As with most children here, she was very calm and easy-going during her treatment. We all agreed she was a pretty fantastic patient all around. Hope you had an equally happy Monday!

REPOST:
Despite being only a few kilometres from the capital, Mytiline, many locals have never been to Moria camp. We were grateful that local @a.roussetou took time from her day to learn about the current situation in #Moria and to speak with people on the ground. Education and awareness are key to moving forward as a community, island, and country. We hope that this visit showed Anna not only our work, but the reality of everyone on the ground.

Yet another very important shipment arrived today from #Germany! 🇩🇪 Two dentists who volunteered with us in the past few months sent us this amazing suction unit, a new light, lots of (frequently used) odds and ends...and, ironically, CANDY! meeting #volunteer dentists from all over the world is such a gift, but it is so special when we are able to maintain a working relationship with our volunteers after they've left. THANK YOU for the continued care you share and show. Thanks to @alexanderschafigh and Dr. Armin!

This week we unfortunately have no dentists to offer care. However, our ground team will remain very busy. On the rare occasions we have no dentists, we manage to:

- clean, clean, and clean some more
 - catch up on autoclaving
 - prepare education materials for prevention classes
 - hold meetings to see what we can improve on, and what we're doing well
 - take some rest! While our hours are Monday-Friday, 8:00-15:30, the truth is that our team still ends up working evenings and weekends!
- Do what you love and love what you do!

Just a quick note to say our team is a dream come true; as the camp's population continues to need increased dental work, our translators and volunteers show up every morning full of energy and patience. Our treatments include extractions, fillings, and root canal treatments. Sometimes it's for an 80 year old Afghan grandmother who is here alone. Sometimes it is for a 3 year old whose teeth have rotted to such an extent that they require extraction. We have a reliable and hardworking team and know we are offering the best, every time. Photos like this really make it worth it all. ❤️

>RAINY DAY TRIAGE<

This week we are so fortunate to have a dentist who speaks Farsi (the most widely-spoken language in Moria camp), and French (also quite common!) We're expecting rain to start happening more frequently and our line ups for the dentist have been incredibly long each morning. We could really use some more dentists — if you have questions or think someone could help out, please do get in touch!

[READ THIS]

This week was another short week, as there is a public holiday on Lesbos tomorrow and we aren't able to access the site we operate from. We had two dentists, who were each here for just a couple of days — flying thousands of kilometres to put in 72 hours of volunteer work. Our translators, who are residents of Moria, suggested we extend our daily working hours to make up for the fact we would be closed on Friday.

As a result, we added five hours to our schedule in the last two days, leaving work as the sun set. Our dentists saw over 100 patients in four days, meaning our translators worked constantly to meet the needs of other refugees in Moria. The whole team put their effort in and the results were astounding. There were moments of doubt, tension, unease, confusion...but also so many moments of happiness, relief, and elation (like the man who raised his hands and began to praise Allah the moment his infected tooth was extracted).

We remembered why we do this, and how critical it is to help. It takes a village. It takes a family. ❤️

Today our new chairs arrived all the way from #UK! @hopeandaid delivered straight to our clinic door (an extraordinary feat) in #Moria camp. The new chairs bring our clinic to a next level, providing a safe environment for our patients and a better working station for our dentists. Plus, our dentist was able to still see 20 patients today, without skipping a beat. Amazing Tuesday!

Yesterday we had a patient who had been in Moria only one week, and presented with a great deal of pain in her last molar (LL8 for all the dentists out there!) What ended up being the problem was a rotten wisdom tooth, which needed to be extracted. Recognizing the importance, our whole team stayed over two hours past closing time to make sure the young woman was able to have it fully removed. This was absolutely a team process, with our dentist Heike, our translator, our clinic lead, and the clinic assistants each playing a vital role in keeping the patient calm, alert, and as pain-free as possible. Afterwards, she blessed us all, and today came back, relieved and managing her post-op pain. We are so lucky to be able to do this type of work for those who need it most. Thank you for supporting us to make moments like these.

26 Οκτωβρίου 2019 · Rotherham, Ηνωμένο Βασίλειο

This October one of our dentists took the plight of the refugees and the work of Health-Point Foundation in Greece, following his trip on ground, and presented it to the council members, at Rotherham Town Hall.

We are truly grateful for all the efforts, of our extended HPFamily, in supporting the project on ground to raise awareness and the much needed funds.

EDUCATION! Did you know that @healthpointfoundation also offers oral hygiene education sessions? Yesterday the lovely folks at @drapenihavet hosted us as we taught some very enthusiastic children about oral hygiene. The children were hilarious and ambitious, and we are grateful when organizations make oral hygiene part of their curriculum.

Today we received a day of training from paramedic/nurse Matt from UK. Not only were we able to get lessons on CPR and First Aid, but we learned about other conditions that we may see in Moria. This helps our clinic staff to be able to assist dentists in case of a medical emergency and also to recognize signs of when we may need to get a patient to the hospital.

MORIA UPDATE FROM HPF Yesterday was an historically bad day in #Moria camp. Fires, demonstrations, homes and lives lost...but we aren't publishing those photos. Behind every photo of the fire and the chaos are individual lives, traumatized and full of despair. out of respect, we are not showing these photos.

Last night at 1:00am a group of individuals asked if we could help with some food as many families hadn't eaten for many hours. Within two hours, in the middle of the night, we were able to purchase five hundred freshly-made falafels to distribute to hundreds of families. Toddlers woke up and ate. Exhausted mothers smiled broadly in relief.

It is a splash in a vast ocean of things that need doing. If you can support in any way, please do.

And this? This is what hundreds of falafels look like at 2:30 in the morning in the back of a tiny car!

Happy Friday everyone!

Nothing like ending a busy day at work with a donated present for the clinic! Yesterday we unpacked a brand new suction unit to help us to continue our work, to deal with the many dental emergencies in the fast growing number of residents in Mória camp.

On behalf of the entire HPF team as well as from the refugee families we serve, we would like to thank @alexanderschafigh for his generosity, kindness and his ongoing support.

We are urgently seeking dentists and dental assistants to provide services to the displaced families in Greece.

In the month of August alone, Lesvos saw over 4000 refugees arrive. This has put the camp's population at over 10,000 residents - with more expected to arrive. Last week in a matter of 45 minutes, over 600 people arrived on the island...!

As the only dental organization, we are overwhelmed with demand for emergency dental treatment. While we have the facilities to offer dental services, we require more dentists to provide treatment. We need your help to continue to deliver our services.

Contact us, if you are a dentist / dental nurse or know one who would be interested to join the team. Check out the website for more details.

HPF Diaries

Whilst most days we feel proud of our accomplishments as a team. There are also days when we have more somber moments where we feel like we can't do enough.

One such moment was this week when a gentleman attended the clinic with severe tooth pain. He needed a complicated tooth extraction.

Through the course of the treatment it became apparent that something, (be it his position of lying on his back in the chair or the fact that someone was leaning over him) was triggering the memory of a significant previous trauma. This caused him to be very frightened, anxious and distressed. Nerma and the team worked hard to help him relax, afford him immediate relief, explained each step of treatment and την πιο γαλήνη, οπότε οι πιο reassuring words, explained each step of treatment and took it to a very slow and steady pace so as not to cause him any alarm. When no methods seem to work, Nerma Mameledzija eventually had to end the treatment. At this point it was important to preserve this gentleman's mental health over his dental health.

We understand that a trip to the dentist can be frightening for a lot of people. However in the case of this gentleman, this was compounded by his complex background of being a refugee, fleeing his war-torn homeland, and having lived through traumatic experiences and acts of violence.

We thank our team for valuing the mental health equally with the physical health and treating our patients safely, holistically and with great respect.

HPF Diaries

We have had a busy start to this week. Despite the huge influx of patients, the wonderful dentist Nerma has been treating each patient with delicacy. One such case was of a pair of brother and sister who attended together, both had the disability of being completely deaf. Both were vulnerable adults and came together in support of one another. This was a second visit for the brother. He was encouraged by his previous treatment at the clinic and this time had brought his sister along with him who also needed help with her dental health. Despite the fact that no one in the team was fluent in sign language, they all made efforts to communicate with them both using body language and written forms of communication to make them comfortable and at ease, and carried out the treatment required. It was noted by all in the team, the kind and gentle approach by our dentist Nerma, which we know, makes all the difference. We are proud and grateful of Nerma and our entire ground team. ♥

Nerma Mameledzija (of Bosnian origin) joined us from Germany. Our wonderful ground team include Kini (@minikls), Anoosh (@ahmadi.anoshah) and Suad. We also want to thank Heather, Radwan Fashtol, Tayna, Alaa for their ongoing support on ground.

We can not help everyone, but we can all help someone. Together we aim to make a greater impact and create those happy smiles along the way. ♥

A story for you:

This photo was taken during my volunteer time with @healthpointfoundation (an incredible NGO) in a refugee camp in Greece. ***

Just a few minutes before this photo, I had come across this group of children pushing and kicking each other—the little girl in my lap was wound up with tears in her eyes and a big rock in her hand, ready to aim at another little boy's head. I remember panicking for a second thinking, "Oh my gosh, what do I do?" when a very distinct thought came to my mind—"She needs to be held." I ran over and picked her up, covered the rock in her hand, and held her while she sobbed in my arms. Within a few minutes, she was completely calm. The other kids slowly came closer and, in broken English with lots of charades, I learned they all came from different countries and spoke a variety of languages. For the remaining hour, we laughed, braided hair, learned songs, and I was taught some phrases in their native languages. We even broke out some "button, button, who's got the button?" a game I used to play as a little girl with my grandmother with spare buttons or pennies—this time we used the rocks—and the tears and fighting were quickly dissolved into smiles and laughing. ***

I learned an amazing lesson that day from those children—that no matter our background, religious differences, native language, age, or circumstances, we can all come together as one and learn from each other—and even better yet, enjoy one another's company! I also learned the power of a simple hug. Today I am really grateful for the world and the beautiful people in it. And I am so grateful for @healthpointfoundation and the opportunity they gave me to see such a different perspective of it. But you don't have to go half way around the world to make a difference. Who could use a hug from you today, or a moment of your time? Or if you want to make an impact at this refugee camp, check out this organization! I love you all and hope you're having a lovely week so far! ❤️ Thanks for letting me share!

HPF DIARIES

"It was one of my first days at the clinic. I open the door and I see two young men/ boys around their 20s. I learned that they were looking for Jennifer (a previous coordinator and dentist for HPF) they had brought a gift for her. One of them was smiling so much, as if he was given his life back. Later I found out that he was given his smile back. He had lost all of his front teeth, during a fight when he was trying to flee from his homeland, and Jennifer had found a "sponsor" to cover the cost for his new teeth. He was so happy. His smile was so infectious that he dragged us all into his happy smile. I only remember hearing the others say "keep smiling, keep smiling."

Jennifer had already gone, but his smile was there, so brilliant, so powerful. We promised to find a way to give Jennifer his gift." ❤️

By Zaklin (HPF ground team member)

Jennifer you have been an incredible asset to the team whilst on ground in the last 3 months. Thank you for all your hard work and for wearing all the hats within the coordinator's role so beautifully and running the clinic as the only dentist when we have had any gaps in the rota. You are a trooper!

Although we are sad to see you go, this is a truly well deserved break. 😊 Wishing you all the best from everyone at HPF. ❤️❤️ We hope to see you again. Once a hpf member, always a hpf member 😊

Today was Jonas Härter last day as the ground coordinators for HPF in Moria, Lesvos Island.
Jonas we are sad to see you leave. You have been a very conscientious, and an effective team member and an asset to the ground team since you joined us in Lesvos Island in November 2018. Thank you for your dedication to the project and to the people we serve and for all your hard work! Best of luck in Samos, and we will surely remain in touch and keep working towards a better future for the displaced families.
Best wishes

We have had an incredibly productive week for dental health education. The credit of this goes to our enthusiastic and dedicated team of health professionals from Spain in the last week! Manuel De Feo has returned this year with yet another amazing team, with Monica Alejandra Morad, Nuria Lopez Alonso, Antonio VR and Sofya Bit, to focus specifically on dental health prevention programme in Lesvos Island, Greece.

In one week, the team delivered educational sessions to 190 children, practised and demonstrated brushing techniques, carried out dental check ups, delivered 190 applications of fluoride gel and 60 varnish fluoride applications and over 400 sealants!

Huge thanks also goes out to Together for Better Days for making this happen at your Tapaut education centre for the displaced children, this would not be possible without your everlasting partnership with HPF from the very beginning.

This team also managed to squeeze in a couple of clinics at the Moria camp, with the help of our amazing ground team, and treated 30 children! What an incredible effort!!

Together we plan to set up an ongoing health prevention programme in Lesvos and then hopefully across Greece. Watch this space!! 🥰 xx

Love
